

The Educational Leadership Institute @ NYS Association for Women in Administration is pleased to sponsor the

Women Administrators Professional Development Series

You're Invited!

A Professional Development and Networking Opportunity For Building and District Level Administrators and Aspiring Administrators

Dates and Locations

Tuesday, May 16, 2017	Salvatore's Restaurant	Williamsville (Buffalo area), NY
Wednesday, May 17, 2017	Burgundy Basin	Pittsford (Rochester area), NY
Tuesday, May 23, 2017	Double Tree by Hilton	Syracuse (Carrier Circle), NY
Wednesday, May 24, 2017	Holiday Inn Express	Latham (Albany area), NY

Schedule

4:00 PM – Registration

4:15 PM – Breakout Sessions (topics may be subject to change)

"The Dynamics of Changing Administrative Positions"

"Pathways to the Superintendency"

"Strengthening Your Fiscal Background"

"Understanding Search Consultants"

5:00 PM - Social - Cash Bar - Dinner

6:30 PM - Dr. Sue Gray

"Women in Leadership: Reflections From a Longitudinal View".

After four decades of observing women administrators and leaders, some of the dynamics of being a woman in leadership have changed and some have not changed much. Dr. Gray will explore what she thinks are the most salient dynamics and share experiences around those dynamics.

Cost

$95 per person (includes dinner)

Online Registration Information

Detailed information and registration at:

www.SuperintendentOfSchools.com >Workshops & Conferences