SUPPORTING OUR SCHOOL LEADERS AND COMMUNITIES
DURING THE COVID-19 CRISIS: A Panel Discussion

THURSDAY'S TOPIC:

Supporting and Working with Our School Communities

- This session will continue where the April 16 "Missing Children" session left off to look more deeply at sharing strategies to work with teachers and families as well as students.
- The focus will be on your questions about how to best support and meet some of the challenges that are presenting themselves during this difficult time.
- Attendees are encouraged to share the strategies that are working now in their school or district.

Featuring:

Kathleen DeCataldo, Esq. Assistant Commissioner Office of Student Support Services, NYSED
Amy Molloy, MSW, M.Ed. Project Director, Mental Health Association in New York State, Inc.
Stuart Pollak, SAANYS President and Principal of Sycamore Avenue Elementary School, Connetquot CSD
Ron Agostinoni, Principal, Shenendehowa High School, Shenendehowa CSD

Join us for this important conversation. You will come away with ideas and resources to better support your school community during this time of crisis and closure.

You will hear the perspectives of an elementary and high school principal from downstate and upstate share what they are seeing in their school communities and learn emerging strategies to establish strong connections with the students and families who need them most.

SAANYS CONNECT is a new way to learn and share on the topics most vital to school leaders in NYS right now:

- 30-40 minute panel conversations on current and rapidly evolving topics.
- Each panel conversation consists of guest experts and SAANYS members. The focus is on sharing experiences and providing you with expertise, resources and tools you can use now and as our current environment evolves.
- FREE to SAANYS members and non-members
