SUPPORTING OUR SCHOOL LEADERS AND COMMUNITIES
DURING THE COVID-19 CRISIS: A Panel Discussion

THURSDAY'S TOPIC:

"The Missing Children" in Our School Communities

- Who are they and how can we ensure we are reaching those students most isolated by the current environment?
- How can we decrease the deep disparities that are impacting those students?
- How can we raise staff awareness and reach out to families of vulnerable students?

Featuring:

Kathleen DeCataldo, Esq. Assistant Commissioner Office of Student Support Services, NYSED

Amy Molloy, MSW, M.Ed. Project Director, Mental Health Association in New York State, Inc.

Stuart Pollak, SAANYS President and Principal of Sycamore Avenue Elementary School, Connetquot CSD

Ron Agostinoni, Principal, Shenendehowa High School, Shenendehowa CSD

Join us for this important conversation about the impact of school closure on our most isolated and vulnerable students. You will come away with ideas and resources to better support them during this time of crisis and closure.

This is an interactive session that will provide the opportunity for you to share with colleagues around NYS as well as our panelists. The emphasis will be on actions and strategies that are proving to be effective in working with students, staff, and families.

SAANYS CONNECT is a new way to learn and share on the topics most vital to school leaders in NYS right now:

- 30-40 minute panel conversations on current and rapidly evolving topics.
- Each panel conversation consists of guest experts and SAANYS members. The focus is on sharing experiences and providing you with expertise, resources and tools you can use now and as our current environment evolves.
- FREE to SAANYS members and non-members
