Leader in Digital Education Award

This award recognizes a SAANYS member who has demonstrated exceptional, creative leadership in harnessing the potential of technology to further teaching and student achievement. The candidate will have demonstrated excellent organizational and communication skills in supporting and promoting such innovative digital practices for his/her learning community.

Outstanding Educator Award

This award is given annually to a SAANYS member who has made outstanding contributions in New York State schools. Potential criteria include: outstanding leadership in public education; exemplary service to professional organizations; and/or noteworthy writing and/or research in the field of education. Recognition of SAANYS members of various roles, responsibilities, and titles is encouraged.

Leadership and Support Award

The SAANYS Leadership and Support Award was established to recognize the outstanding leadership efforts of those members whose responsibilities require leadership through support services to fellow administrators across and between buildings and districts. Such administrators may be employed by BOCES or in other cooperative efforts. These positions include non-instructional and support positions that promote and encourage collaboration among multiple buildings and/or districts.

Irving Schwartz (Retiree)

Irving Schwartz was one of the founding members of SAANYS. As an NASSP coordinator, he served on the SAANYS Board of Directors through 1994. He supported SAANYS as a Nassau County regional representative for many years, retiring in 1999. This award is given to a SAANYS member who, in retirement, has made significant contributions to the welfare of the association, public education, and/or the greater community.

K-12 Building Principal Award

This award is in recognition of the unique characteristics of a K-12 building and the related demands, expectations, and challenges of a principal in this multi-level environment. It is given to a SAANYS member who is a successful principal of a K-12 building and recognized educational leader who has been a practicing administrator for at least 3 years. Criteria:

- Demonstrated leadership in establishing the pace, character, and mission of the building.
- Demonstrated creativity and resourcefulness in providing comprehensive programs and services for all levels and grades.
- Evidence of positive parental and community involvement in the school and student involvement in the community.
- Evidence of enhancing positive interaction between all levels of students.
- Utilization of outside resources for program enhancement.
- Evidence of collaborative involvement of all staff in decision-making and program implementation.
- Evidence of instructional leadership in support of quality teaching and student achievement.

Friend of Education Award

This award was established to honor an individual who, or a group or organization that, has contributed to the general support and advancement of outstanding public school education in New York State.

This individual, group, or organization:

- Is not a professional educator or educational organization within the K-12 NYS public school system.
- Has contributed to the support and advancement of outstanding public school education in a way that extends to the broadest number of students in one or more of SAANYS' regions.
- Has been a role model for educators by consistently demonstrating a belief in the importance and value of a public school education.
- Has made these contributions over an extended period of time.

CALL FOR SUBMISSIONS

Please note: If you are applying for a national award, please be cognizant of the eligibility criteria described within. If you meet the national criteria, fill out the national application only. If you are not eligible for a national award based on the criteria, please fill out the SAANYS state-level application only, as you may still be eligible for a state-level award.

SAANYS is the official state affiliate to the National Association of Elementary School Principals (NAESP) and the National Association of Secondary School Principals (NASSP) and their annual awards programs.

SAANYS/NASSP Assistant Principal Award

This program promotes educational excellence for pre-kindergarten through eighth grade (PreK-8) schooling and calls attention to the fundamental importance of the assistant principal. The candidate must have demonstrated exceptional leadership in a particular school program and is respected by students, colleagues, parents, and the community at large; and sets high expectations for school staff and students. NAESP will share their successes and best practices in a practical document for other principals to utilize.

SAANYS/NAESP Assistant Principal Award

The NAESP National Assistant Principal of the Year program annually recognizes outstanding middle level and high school assistant principals who have succeeded in providing high quality learning opportunities for students. These assistant principals are acknowledged by their peers for the exemplary contributions they have made to the profession. From these state winners, three finalists are named as contenders for the National Assistant Principal of the Year award. The NASSP National Assistant Principal of the Year is selected from among the finalists.

SAANYS/NAESP Elementary School Principal Award

This award is given annually to a SAANYS/NAESP member who has distinguished herself/himself as an elementary school principal.

Criteria:

- The nominee sets the pace, character, and quality of education for the children in the school.
- The nominee is a practicing principal who is committed to excellence.
- The nominee has made a commitment to parents and community.
- The nominee has shown evidence of outstanding contributions to the community and the educational process.

SAANYS/NAESP Middle School Principal Award

This award is given annually to a SAANYS and NAESP member who has distinguished herself/himself as a middle school principal.

Criteria:

- The nominee sets the pace, character, and quality of education for the children in the school.
- The nominee is a practicing principal who is committed to excellence.
- The nominee has made a commitment to parents and community.
- The nominee has shown evidence of outstanding contributions to the community and the educational process.

SAANYS/NASSP Secondary School Principal of the Year Award

The NASSP National Principal of the Year program recognizes outstanding middle level and high school principals who have succeeded in providing high-quality learning opportunities for students as well as demonstrating exemplary contributions to the profession. NASSP honors all State Principals of the Year at the Principal's Institute held each year in Washington, D.C. From these state winners, three finalists are named as contenders for the National Principal of the Year award. The NASSP National Principal of the Year is selected from among the finalists.
