SAANYS PROFESSIONAL LEARNING

WHAT CAN WE DO FOR YOU?

Professional learning means many things in today's complex and changing environment. As school leaders, your demanding work requires that you take care of yourself and others while honing the skills you need to lead.

Navigating relationships, dealing with the challenges in COVID's aftermath, and focusing on building school communities that are safe, equitable, and student centered are all expectations that you face every day. Sometimes, you need more "how-to," and other times, you might just need to connect with colleagues or even hear some inspiring stories that reconnect you with your "why."

SAANYS is committed to offering professional learning that is focused on your ever-changing needs and personalized to meet the realities you face each day.

listen to what our members are saying:

SAANYS PD events keep me current and connected with colleagues from all over the state.

Informative, interesting and inspirational are words I would use to describe SAANYS professional learning events.

The wide variety of options makes it possible to learn and network with other school leaders both in my area and all over the state.

I know I am always getting the most current information on topics that I need to know about.

I love being part of a cohort to get both deep learning and support over time on complex work.
